

MORALITY

It is upright and proper to be an honest and moral person, as the world could not function properly without at least a reasonable degree of conscience towards other people and an intrinsic higher power, namely a god and his Holy Sovereign Laws, (moral absolutes).

The Bible, the holy book of the Christians says in ROMANS1:19, 20..."Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath showed it unto them. "...For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made even his eternal power and God head; so that they are without excuse."... This means the God of the bible spiritually reveals to all of mankind His attributes, such as, truth, justice, mercy, and love. He also shows us His ability to create a physical universe. Consequently this can also convict man of his sinful nature, insecurity and hopelessness in his quest for a meaningful existence and thirst for eternal life. Man wants to make the moral rules but can't do a perfect job as he does not have the wisdom of God. War is a good example of mans miserable attempt to make things better by will pitted against will.

However the good news is, Almighty God (Yahweh) has given mankind a bridge (a free will choice) to eternal life with Him in heaven, and that bridge is through his son, The Lord Jesus Christ. But first, one has to first see his need for salvation before he can understand why Jesus is the only way to be saved. The first step onto that bridge is to believe on the gospel message in the Holy Bible and the focus of that message is defined in JOHN 3:16. This verse says... "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."...Praise God for that bridge,Amen.
